

WASHINGTON, DC -The Internal Revenue Service will host a special nationwide Open House on Saturday May 15 to help small businesses and individuals solve tax problems.

The Minneapolis Taxpayer Assistance Center at 250 Marquette Ave. and the St. Paul center at 30 E. Seventh St. are among approximately 200 IRS offices open Saturday, June 5 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. local time. The IRS is holding these special Open Houses to provide help to individual taxpayers dealing with notices and payments, return preparation and a variety of other tax issues. IRS staff will be available on site or by telephone to help taxpayers work through their problems and walk out with solutions.

IRS locations will be equipped to handle issues involving notices and payments, return preparation, audits and a variety of other issues. So, for example, a taxpayer who cannot pay a tax balance due can discuss with an IRS professional whether an installment agreement is appropriate and, if so, fill out the paperwork then and there. Assistance with offers-in-compromise will also be available. Likewise, a taxpayer struggling to complete a certain IRS form or schedule can work directly with IRS staff to get the job done.
